

KAIKEN Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon 2005 / Argentina

Dark ruby, ripe and pure, with a great presence of blackberry and blueberry fruit, this Cabernet bring bitter chocolate, cedar, tobacco, coffee and mineral notes from the Agrelo area. Tannins are well-formed, and its comes together beautifully, with a silky and balance finish.

Denomination of Origin:
Mendoza, Argentina.

Grape Variety:
*Cabernet Sauvignon 90%.
Malbec 10%.*

Yield of Vineyard:
9 tons per hectare.

Oak Aging:
*60% American oak aging for 9 months.
40% unexposed to wood.*

Filtering:
Gently filtered to preserve the wine's original aroma.

Cellaring Recommendations:
Up to 5 years.

Recommended Serving Temperature:
*Recommended 30 minutes decanting before drinking.
16° a 18° C.*

Gourmand notes:
This wine is the perfect match for mature, strong cheese, red and white meat, as well as pasta with mild sauces.

Basic Analysis:

Alcohol	14.5
PH	3.7
Total Acidity (H <sub>2</sub> SO <sub>4</sub> )	3.33 g/l
Volatile Acidity (C <sub>2</sub> H <sub>4</sub> O <sub>2</sub> )	0.58 g/l
Residual Sugar	2.6 g/l
Free (SO <sub>2</sub> )	0.023 g/l